

Diplomats Without Borders

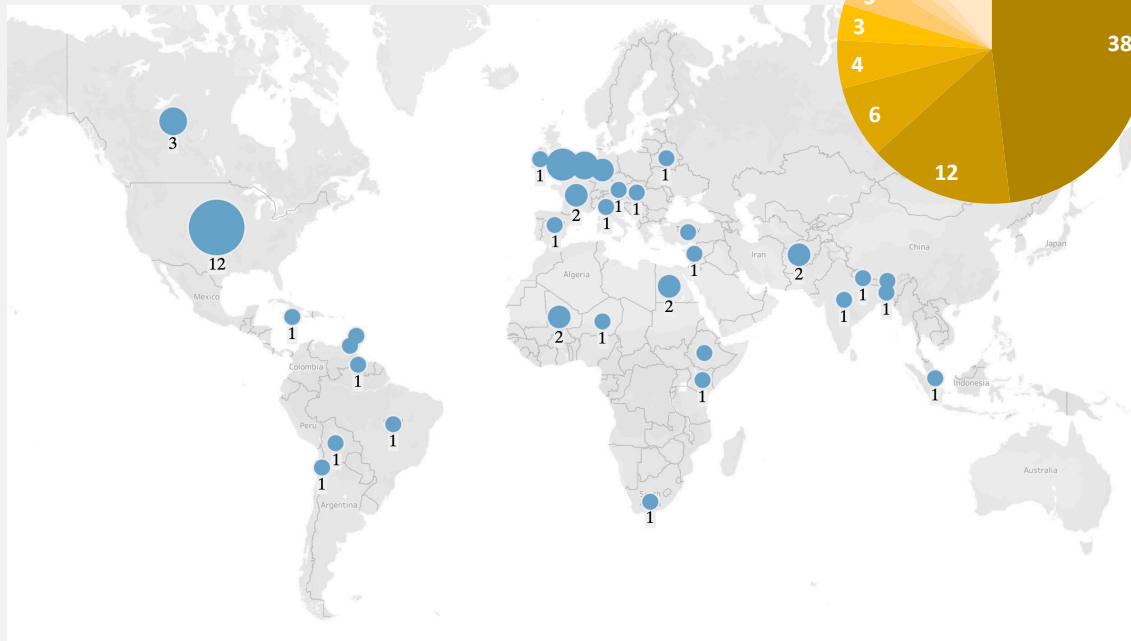

SKILLS LANDSCAPING - General Overview

DWB's mission is to provide the services of experienced and impartial former diplomats, supported by relevant experts, to strengthen conflict prevention and resolution capacities, to offer advice and training, and to provide a platform for dialogue worldwide.

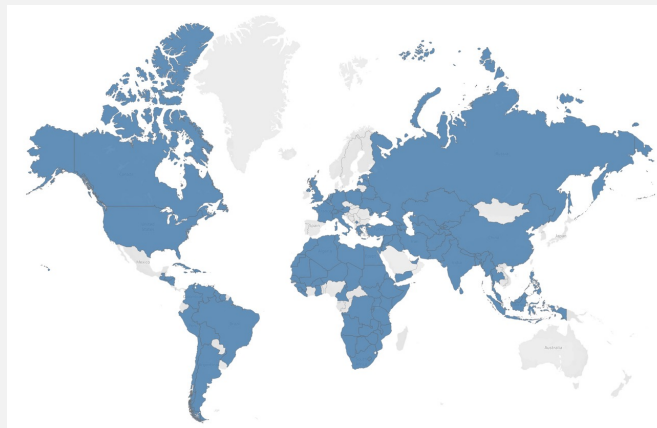

Data collected from 43 respondents show DWB members come from over 33 different countries, have experience and networks in more than 111 countries, and speak over 17 different languages. Our members are equipped with the knowledge and experiences to provide skills training, mediation and conflict resolution services, and peace building activities.

Geographic Origins of DWB Members

DWB members are affiliated with 33 different countries.

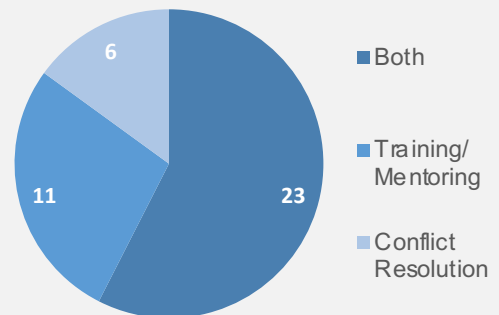

Working experience & networks

DWB members have working experience and networks in more than 111 countries globally, with significant representation in the African continent.

Available for Training/Conflict Resolution

23 members are available for both Training & Mentoring, 6 are available for Conflict Resolution services, 11 for Training and Mentoring.

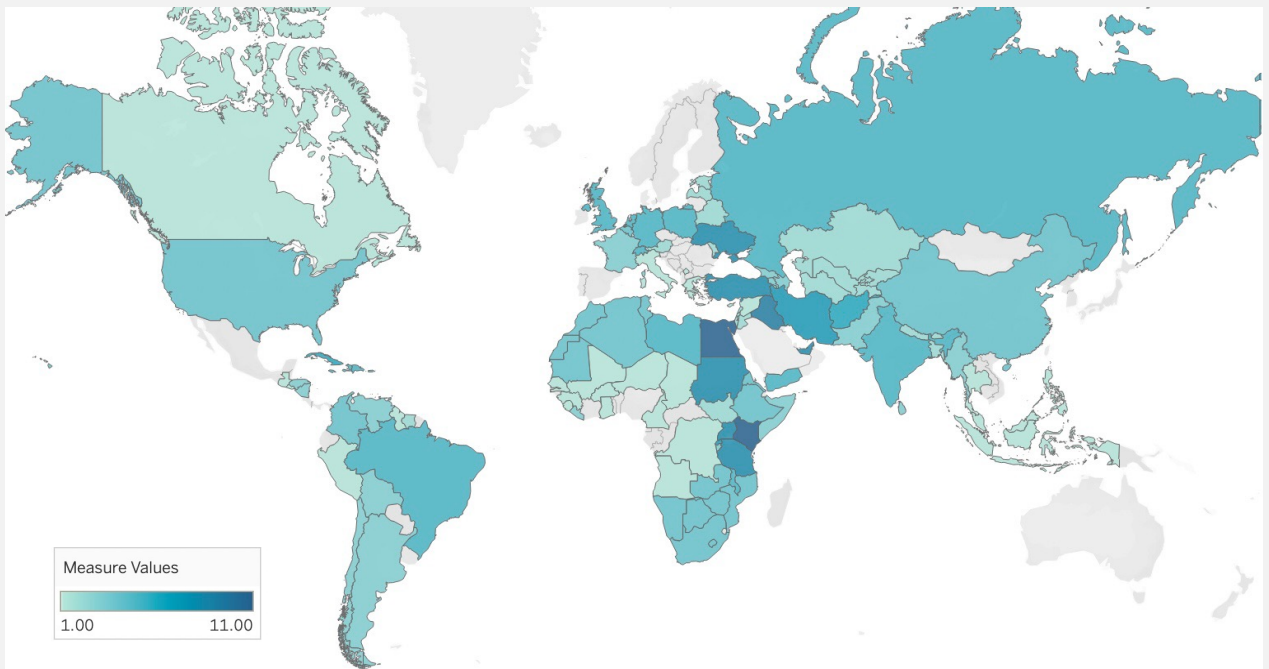

Diplomats Without Borders

SKILLS LANDSCAPING - Training/Mentoring

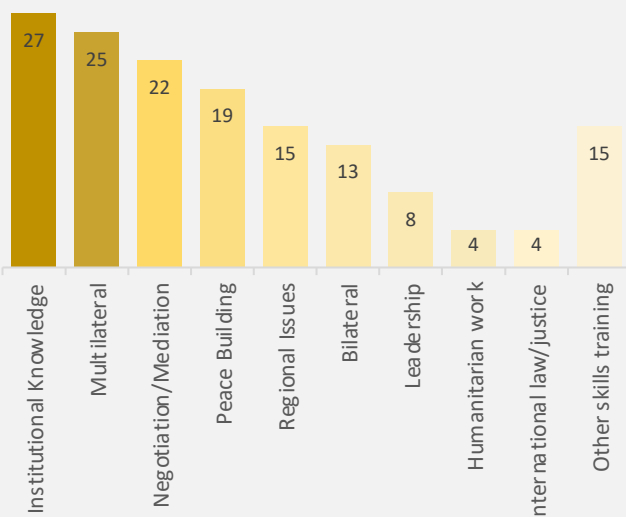

Our members have experience and connections across the globe. They are able to teach in around 17 different languages, and can support skills training across a broad range of subjects; from passing on institutional knowledge of operations at large international organisations, multilateral and bilateral interactions, to peacebuilding, and international law.

Geographic Experience in Training/Mentoring

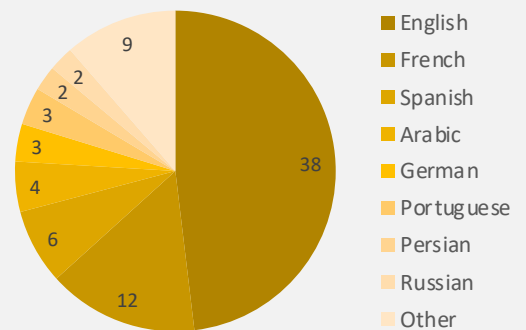

DWB members have experience in 94 different countries

Training/Mentoring Experience

Languages

Other: Conflict analysis; Change & reform; Integration; Institution building; Trading Systems; Environment and cross-regional sustainable development, science and technology; Gender, Peace & Security.

Other: Indonesian, Turkish, Greek, Italian, Pashto, Ukrainian, Belarusian, Amharic, Dari

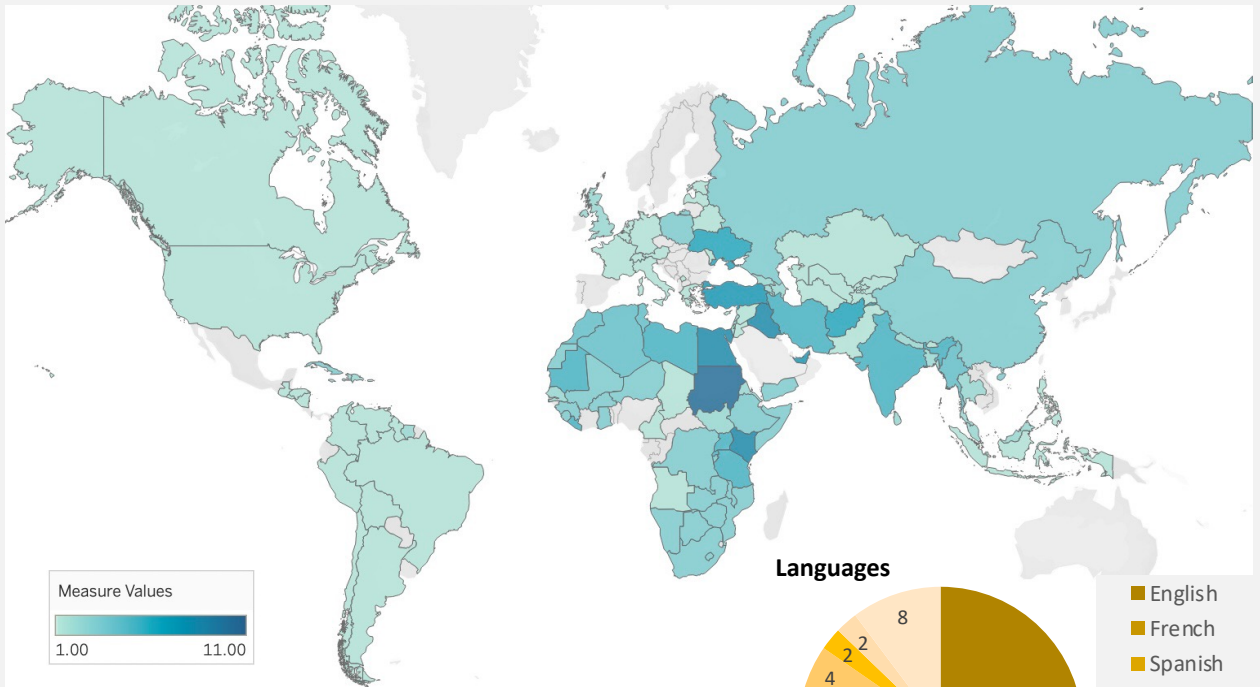

Diplomats Without Borders

SKILLS LANDSCAPING - Conflict Resolution

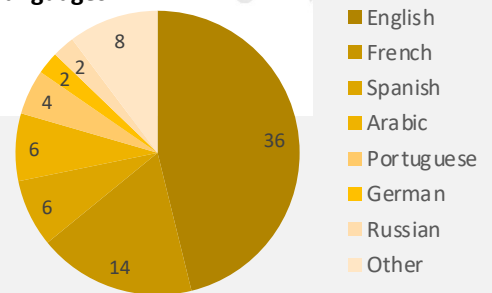

Our members can provide conflict resolution services across 12 sub-fields and in 15 different languages. They display extensive experience in conflict resolution methods such as Peacebuilding, Track 2 Negotiations, Capacity Building, and Direct Negotiations.

Geographic Experience in Conflict Resolution

DWB members have experience in 101 different countries

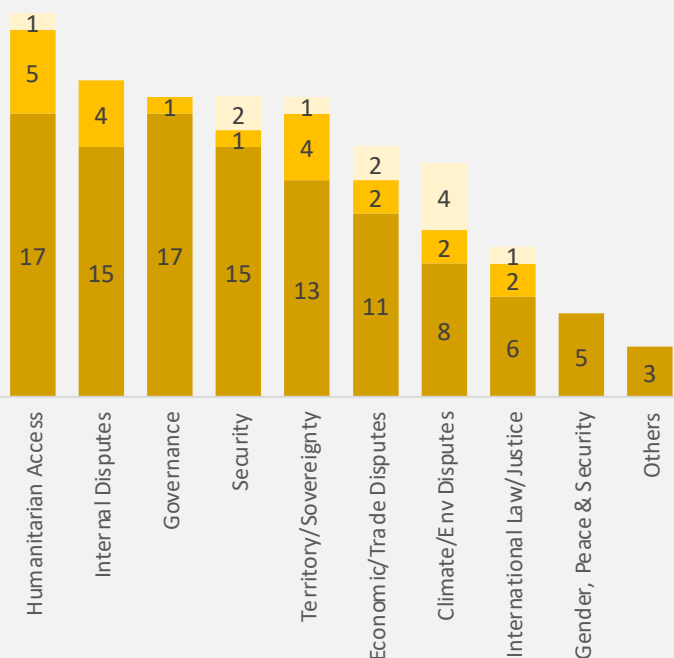

Languages

Other: Persian, Indonesian, Turkish, Greek, Italian, Pashto, Ukrainian, Belarusian

Conflict Resolution Experience

■ Extensive Experience ■ Some Experience ■ Limited Experience

Others: Sustainable Development; Children Protection; Peacebuilding.

Individuals' Experience in Roles & Activities

